The next meeting of the Lewis Howard Latimer Progressive Association will be held at The Joint Industry Board in The Balcony Lounge on Monday, March 15, 2010 at 5pm. The new Club President will be sworn in on this date.

Newly appointed Club President, Brother Melvin Smiley Sr., will be sworn in at the March meeting. Melvin entered the 'A' apprenticeship in 1998 and received his A card in 2003. He has been a sub-foreman, foreman and is currently a shop steward. Brother Smiley teaches the citizenship course and has completed many courses: track safety, confined space, expedition, wiring, OSHA 10, supervisory and The Breakthrough leadership course. Brother Smiley is married with three children and prides himself as a family man.

Club News :

Special Thanks to past Club President William G. Riley Sr. You are a dedicated soldier and we wish you all the best. Your hard work and ethics were greatly appreciated.

Tickets for the Scholarship Dinner Dance are available as well as 50/50 raffle tickets. Please be mindful that THE TICKET DEADLINE IS APRIL 1, 2010.

Speak to ticket chairperson Jennita Bradley or any board member for more information. The 52nd Annual Scholarship Dinner Dance and Awards Dinner will be April 24th from 7pm to 12pm at The JIB auditorium honoring Business Representative Joe Santigate and club member Ollie Brown.

Please continue to invite and encourage fellow co-workers and members to become active and to make club meetings as well as union meetings to stay informed and enlightened.
